KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Edward Roske.

CEO · AUTHOR · DATA SCIENTIST · ENTERTAINER

Questions, not predictions. A keynote for leaders inside an organization who care (or should) about AI. Dryly witty, with an overabundance of speaker awards to prove he can educate while keeping the audience entertained. A master's in data science and twenty-five years inside the Office of the CFO. Fifteen books written starting in 2007. A podcast built entirely around the questions executives are quietly asking themselves about AI. Over 700,000 subscribers to his YouTube channel focused on asking good questions.

SIGNATURE TALKS

01 / KEYNOTE OR FIRESIDE

Answers to the Questions You've Been Quietly Asking Yourself About AI

For executive audiences tired of generic AI predictions who want frameworks for the questions they're already wrestling with privately. Works as a keynote, a fireside, or the opening session of an executive offsite.

02 / KEYNOTE

Business Leaders Guide to AI

AI is rewriting every process inside the company, from how finance closes the books to how marketing writes a brief to how engineering ships a feature. What's actually changing, where to start, and where to go next once the first wave lands.

03 / OPERATOR TALK

Your Day, Run by Ten Agents

Edward's daily life runs on 10+ AI agents at all times: calendar, inbox, research, writing, code, decisions. The stack he actually uses, what each agent does, and how executives can assemble the same force multiplier for their own day.

04 / FOUNDER TALK

Building a Company in the Era of AI

Founded interRel at twenty-two. Ran it for twenty-five years. Merged it with Keste to help found Argano, a billion-dollar firm. Now building AI companies. For founders and operators on how building an organization changes when AI is rewriting the underlying business model.

When booking Edward, you're also booking an event campaign.

01

The Keynote

A signature talk customized to your audience. Tech check, rehearsal, Q&A or panel slot, and full hallway-track presence.

02

Podcast Appearance

An Asking Good Questions guest slot for your CEO or another exec, your keynote, or a key customer, often timed to the same week as the event.

03

30 Days of Amplification

If your event is public: a month of Edward's LinkedIn, X, and YouTube posts (over 700,000 subscribers) seeding before and recapping after.

ABOUT EDWARD

Edward Roske is a data scientist who builds AI and runs his own day on ten-plus AI agents. He founded interRel Consulting at twenty-two, ran it for two and a half decades as one of the longest-standing Oracle Platinum EPM Partners, and in 2020 merged it with Keste to help found Argano, a billion-dollar global consulting firm. Today he's the CEO of Dawnward and an investor in Caprus, the AI software and services company that sells AgentCube, the product he coded so any AI can talk to enterprise systems.

He's the author of fifteen books in the Look Smarter Than You Are series (written from 2007 to today), host of the Asking Good Questions podcast, president of the Puerto Rico AI Community (1,000+ different attendees), and co-chair of the 2026 Caribbean AI Summit. He holds an MS in Data Science from SMU (perfect 4.0, Outstanding Graduate). He also holds two U.S. patents for custom postage stamps (a fact rarely useful at keynotes but excellent at parties).
